PREFACE

One must act with precision, doing the right thing and that right thing goes along a truth path only, no matter where the destination lies. Faith or as Hindus say bhakti in truth constitutes dharma, otherwise known as sanatana dharma, based on the clear understanding that God Sri Krishna is the Supreme Being and has engineered the existence of this truth path that is dharmayudha no matter the strength of the oppression that one faces.

Your Honour

I am due to attend a Bail to Return to Medway Police Station tomorrow 21st Deceneber 2023 that I brought to your esteemed attention as linked here: OPEN-ENDED INVESTIGATIONS BY KENT POLICE? (knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com)
<https://www.knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com/post/open-ended-investigations-by-kent-police> with further developments since that your Honour needs to consider as attached: SOON BE CHRISTAS.pdf; AWAITING THE INEVITABLE.pdf

Nothing has changed, I am still suffering Mental Torture brought on by terroristic emails. We have still not had our property restored as promised by DC Field under Stalking offence and Kent Police would not tell me anything of how to prepare for the Bail appointment as to whether there will be an interview on me, whether a Duty Solicitor needs to be present (Olives Solicitors have not replied if Philippa Beswick will be present), and what precisely are under considerations as regards Malicious Communications alleged for which I am the only suspect by all accounts.

Yours sincerely

Tadalista 20mg - The Long-Lasting Solution for ED

Email:

aliseroy0@gmail.com

Website:

<https://www.medsvilla.com/>

Message:

The medication Tadalafil, also marketed under the name Tadalista 20mg, is used to treat erectile dysfunction (ED). It increases blood flow to the penis since it is a Phosphodiesterase Type 5 (PDE5) inhibitor. You can ingest a medication called Tadalista 20mg. The usual dose is 10 mg; however, in some circumstances, 20 mg might be needed. Tadalista 20 can be taken anyway, with or without food. Tadalafil is a secure and reliable choice for treating erectile dysfunction. Even though it's mostly safe, you might get sick occasionally. The most often reported adverse responses were back pain, nausea, and vomiting. These are usually minor adverse effects that go away by themselves. If you experience any symptoms that are particularly bothersome or persistent, speak with your doctor. Tadalafil should be avoided by some persons. If you are allergic to Tadalafil or any of the other ingredients in Tadalista stay away from it. It shouldn't be used by anyone who already takes nitrate medications like nitroglycerin to address heart issues. You must tell your doctor about every drug you are presently taking because Tadalista 20 may interact with some of them. Before taking Tadalista 20, talk to your doctor. They are the greatest source for determining whether Tadalista 20 is the right decision for you and for responding to any queries you may have regarding the medication. Other Ed medications: Tadalista 40 and Vilitra 20 mg

Comments:

Deleted another Website type terroristic email that came at around 10.45 am as it serves no purpose to endlessly record such proven rubbish when the State authorities take no notice of complaints or private prosecutions, litigations, or even using the evidence under mitigation when charged with a Speed Awareness Offence that I was involved in on 5 October 2022, and was convicted when it was a civil matter that did not give me a Pre-Trial Hearing so that the charge that I levelled against Kent Police in prosecuting the offence was that it was part of its campaign of a Hate Crime against me. The Trial took place on 10 November 2023, 2 pm at Medway Magistrates Court and under duress I had pleaded guilty at the last minute or would have had to face much more severe fine instead of the £100 that I had to pay with the endorsement of my driving licence with 3 points.

11.44 am (UK-Time) 20 December 2023

I needed to enforce the email to the North Kent Magistrates Court, Kent CPO and se.magistrates@cps.gov.uk, so published it in Daily Bulletin, tweeting and posting it in Vishista Advaita Sampradaya page of Facebook:

Information to suspects released on bail

Bail legislation is contained within the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984, as amended in 2017 & 2022.

If released on bail the following is applicable:-

- . You must surrender to custody at the date and time as specified above
- . You will be subject to an Applicable Bail Period (ABP). The ABP covers a period that you can be bailed within by the Custody Officer before it is reviewed to ensure the investigation is being dealt with diligently and expeditiously and to ensure that bail is still necessary and proportionate.
- . If initially you were released on bail before 28/10/2022 the ABP was authorised by a Police Inspector for 28 days. The ABP can be reviewed, and an extension for another three calendar months may be authorised on or before 28 days, by a Police Superintendent. Further extensions can be authorised at 3 calendar month intervals thereafter.
- . If initially you were released on bail after 28/10/2022 the ABP was authorised by the Custody Officer for 3 calendar months. The ABP can be reviewed, and an extension for another 3 calendar months may be authorised, on or before 3 calendar months, by a Police Inspector. Further extensions can be authorised at 3 calendar months intervals thereafter.
- . If your case is being investigated by the Serious Fraud Office, or the Financial Conduct Authority, or HM Revenue and Customs, or National Crime Agency, the initial ABP for these cases is six months authorised by the Custody Officer. However, the police do not authorise extensions for these cases. This must be done by a designated officer for those agencies.
- . If your case has been immediately referred to the Crown Prosecution Service the ABP will not start unless they require the investigators to carry out further work.
- . You or your legal representative will be informed of the intention to apply for an extension to the ABP either in person if at the police station or by your preferred means of contact. You will be asked if you want to make any representations either immediately if in person by return of post/email etc.
- . Early reviews will be conducted by relevant decision makers and later ones will be conducted by the Courts.
- . The ABP will be suspended for the time that the case is sent back to the Crown Prosecution Service.
- . You will be informed of the decision and the relevant time and date of the end of your ABP.
- . You will also be informed of the actual date and time you are due to answer bail. This may be the same or a different time to the end of an ABP.
- . The consequence of all the above is that your bail date can be subject to several amendments. However a reasonable attempt will always be made to notify you of any changes, in writing to the address that you have provided to the police (or the preferred method of contact), and/or via your legal representative if you have one.

It is important that you notify OIC of any change of your address, your legal representative, or other point of contact, and that you provide us with any current phone numbers and email contact details. By doing so, we may be able to prevent you having to attend needlessly at a custody suite if we know (especially at short notice) that you have a new, later bail date or other information change (such as 'No Further Action').

Police Advisory Notice to Suspects

If you are involved in criminal proceedings, the following summary of potential offences is included for your information and awareness. The same offences will also be brought to the attention of any relevant victim or witness for their information. The list of offences is NOT exhaustive.

The purpose of this is to make clear to all involved parties that any unlawful, unnecessary or inappropriate contact between the suspect in a case (either directly or through a third party), and the victim or witness may constitute a criminal offence.

Any unlawful, unnecessary or inappropriate contact reported to the police, including any perception that this is the case, may result in arrests and prosecution of parties for any of the following offences

Intimidation of witnesses, jurors & others

Under 5.51 of the Criminal Justice & Public Order Act 1994 it is an offence to intimidate or threaten by any means any person involved in the investigation of an offence relating to criminal matters.

In summary proceedings A fine and/or maximum six months imprisonment

On indictment A fine and/or maximum five years imprisonment

'Harassment'

Under S.2 of the Protection from Harassment Act 1997, it is an offence for a person to pursue a course of conduct which amounts to harassment of another, and which he/she knows or ought to know amounts to harassment of the other, or to persuade any person not to do something that they are entitled or required to do, or to do something that they are not under any obligation to do.

In summary proceedings A fine and/or maximum six months imprisonment

On indictment: A fine and/or maximum two years imprisonment

Please note that other, more serious, offences are also provided for under the Protection from Harassment Act 1997

Perverting the Course of Justice

Under Common Law, it is an offence to conspire, act or embark upon a course of conduct which has a tendency to, and is intended to pervert, the course of public justice.

Some of the ways where conduct is capable of amounting to this offence is by making false allegations, perjury, concealing offences, obstructing the police, assisting others to evade arrest, failing to prosecute, interfering with witnesses/evidence/jurors, and publication of matters calculated to prejudice a fair trial.

On indictment: Maximum LIFE imprisonment

Postal Charging

This leaflet explains Postal Charging and answers some questions you may have.

What is Postal Charging?

This is a method of bringing an offender before a court for prosecution.

It means that you could be charged and required to attend court by post without returning to a police station.

Can I be charged by post?

If you have been in police custody and you are granted unconditional police bail to return to a police station at a later date you may be charged by means of a 'postal charge' if a decision is made to charge you.

How does it work?

If a decision is made to charge you at least 14 days before you are due to answer your bail you may receive a 'charge' and a 'requisition' to attend court through the post.

Will I still be on Police bail?

Once a postal charge and requisition has been issued you will no longer be on police bail for that offence.

What do I do if I receive a Postal Charge?

You will receive a charge/requisition form (MG4D). This will state the offence(s) with which you are charged. This will require you to attend court at a specified date and time.

If you fail to attend court when required a warrant will be issued for your arrest. If this happens, If this happens you may be held in custody until the next available date

If you do not receive a postal charge or a bail cancellation notice you must answer your police bail at the date and time shown on your bail form.

Information to suspects released on bail

Bail legislation is contained with the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984, as amended in 2017 & 2022.

If released on bail the following is applicable:-

- . You must surrender to custody at the date and time as specified above
- . You will be subject to an Applicable Bail Period (ABP). The ABP covers a period that you can be bailed within by the Custody Officer before it is reviewed to ensure the investigation is being dealt with diligently and expeditiously and to ensure that bail is still necessary and proportionate.
- . If initially you were released on bail before 28/10/2022 the ABP was authorised by a Police Inspector for 28 days. The ABP can be reviewed, and an extension for another three calendar months may be authorised on or before 28 days, by a Police Superintendent. Further extensions can be authorised at 3 calendar month intervals thereafter.
- . If initially you were released on bail after 28/10/2022 the ABP was authorised by the Custody Officer for 3 calendar months. The ABP can be reviewed, and an extension for another 3 calendar months may be authorised, on or before 3 calendar months, by a Police Inspector. Further extensions can be authorised at 3 calendar months intervals thereafter.
- . If your case is being investigated by the Serious Fraud Office, or the Financial Conduct Authority, or HM Revenue and Customs, or National Crime Agency, the initial ABP for these cases is six months authorised by the Custody Officer. However, the police do not authorise extensions for these cases. This must be done by a designated officer for those agencies.
- . If your case has been immediately referred to the Crown Prosecution Service the ABP will not start unless they require the investigators to carry out further work.
- . You or your legal representative= will be informed of the intention to apply for an extension to the ABP either in person if at the police station or by your preferred means of contact. You will be asked if you want to make any representations either immediately if in person by return of post/email etc.
- . Early reviews will be conducted by relevant decision makers and later ones will be conducted by the Courts.
- . The ABP will be suspended for the time that the case is sent back to the Crown Prosecution Service.
- . You will be informed of the decision and the relevant time and date of the end of your ABP.
- . You will also be informed of the actual date and time you are due to answer bail. This may be the same or a different time to the end of an ABP.

. The consequence of all the above is that your bail date can be subject to several amendments. However a reasonable attempt will always be made to notify you of any changes, in writing to the address that you have provided to the police (or the preferred method of contact), and/or via your legal representative if you have one.

It is important that you notify OIC of any change of your address, your legal representative, or other point of contact, and that you provide us with any current phone numbers and email contact details. By doing so, we may be able to prevent you having to attend needlessly at a custody suite if we know (especially at short notice) that you have a new, later bail date or other information change (such as 'No Further Action').

Police Advisory Notice to Suspects

If you are involved in criminal proceedings, the following summary of potential offences is included for your information and awareness. The same offences will also be brought to the attention of any relevant victim or witness for their information. The list of offences is NOT exhaustive.

The purpose of this is to make clear to all involved parties that any unlawful, unnecessary or inappropriate contact between the suspect in a case (either directly or through a third party), and the victim or witness may constitute a criminal offence.

Any unlawful, unnecessary or inappropriate contact reported to the police, including any perception that this is the case, may result in arrests and prosecution of parties for any of the following offences

Intimidation of witnesses, jurors & others

Under 5.51 of the Criminal Justice & Public Order Act 1994 it is an offence to intimidate or threaten by any means any person involved in the investigation of an offence relating to criminal matters.

In summary proceedings A fine and/or maximum six months imprisonment

On indictment A fine and/or maximum five years imprisonment

'Harassment'

Under S.2 of the Protection from Harassment Act 1997, it is an offence for a person to pursue a course of conduct which amounts to harassment of another, and which he/she knows or ought to know amounts to harassment of the other, or to persuade any person not to do something that they are entitled or required to do, or to do something that they are not under any obligation to do.

In summary proceedings A fine and/or maximum six months imprisonment

On indictment: A fine and/or maximum two years imprisonment

Perverting the Course of Justice

Under Common Law, it is an offence to conspire, act or embark upon a course of conduct which has a tendency to, and is intended to pervert, the course of public justice.

Some of the ways where conduct is capable of amounting to this offence is by making false allegations, perjury, concealing offences, obstructing the police, assisting others to evade arrest, failing to prosecute, interfering with witnesses/evidence/jurors, and publication of matters calculated to prejudice a fair trial.

On indictment: Maximum LIFE imprisonment

Postal Charging

This leaflet explains Postal Charging and answers some questions you may have.

What is Postal Charging?

This is a method of bringing an offender before a court for prosecution.

It means that you could be charged and required to attend court by post without returning to a police station.

Can I be charged by post?

If you have been in police custody and you are granted unconditional police bail to return to a police station at a later date you may be charged by means of a 'postal charge' if a decision is made to charge you.

How does it work?

If a decision is made to charge you at least 14 days before you are due to answer your bail you may receive a 'charge' and a 'requisition' to attend court through the post.

Will I still be on Police bail?

Once a postal charge and requisition has been issued you will no longer be on police bail for that offence.

What do I do if I receive a Postal Charge?

You will receive a charge/requisition form (MG4D). This will state the offence(s) with which you are charged. This will require you to attend court at a specified date and time.

If you fail to attend court when required a warrant will be issued for your arrest. If this happens, If this happens you may be held in custody until the next available date

If you do not receive a postal charge or a bail cancellation notice you must answer your police bail at the date and time shown on your bail form.

I had uploaded an earlier version of this book into the website The Allurement of Reality in Review Shop up to the 14.37 pm (UK-Time) point. I do not need to post anything in Libertarian Democracy Diary of the Author any more because unless Kent Police charge me with Malicious Communications, my Defence is to be contained in this book which I will prepare further by continuous updating and submit. They cannot escape Judgment, like the North Kent Magistrates Court has done today and same with the Central London County Court on my Claim E35YM660.

15.24 pm (UK-Time) 20 December 2023

Update:

I retitled this book (up to the Last Updated: 15.24 pm (UK-Time) 20 December 2023 point) at the top replacing the introduction page 0, as follows:

DOSSIER OF DEFENSIVE RESISTANCE TO STATE-ORGANISED PERSECUTION OF DR SHANTANU
PANIGRAHI
(Draft: 20 December 2023, 16.00 hours)

Defendant's Statement of Truth

This document is the culmination of the Defendant's resistance to what inevitably proved to be State-organised victimisation, persecution, police brutality, obstruction of justice and perverting the course of justice since the Defendant first lost his scientific career at the University of Greenwich without being paid his statutory redundancy payment of around £55,000.

It is prepared on the eve of the attendance of the Defendant's Return to Police Station under Bail conditions set at 20.00 hours on 21st December 2023 for alleged Malicious Communications on which he is only still a suspect judging by the latest proceedings as follows:

AWAITING THE MAGISTRATES JUDGMENT

(TRUNCATED)...

I then created a new Forum post of this Dossier in Libertarian Democracy Diary of the Author, as follows:

subject: AUTOMATIC RENEWAL OF ANNUAL MEMBERSHIP AND STALKING MATTER

mailed-by: gmail.com

Dear Sirs

1. My membership of the Conservative and Unionist Party attached expired on 12 December 2023, yet I have not received any information from Conservative Headquarters on whether it is being renewed for another year (Conservative Membership Certificate.pdf).

Secondly, please note that Kent Police has come to a Result on the Stalking allegation of Katrina Sale of the Conservative Party Forum made against me for it must have been her who complained to the Police about receiving malicious communication of harassment from me. DC Field has written to me that the result of its investigation is that I will not be charged with the offence as linked here: Kent

Police Investigations (knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com)

<https://www.knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com/post/kent-police-investigations>

If I was exonerated as a suspect of stalking Katrina Sale repeatedly, then someone else must have been responsible for perpetrating the offence, The question is who sent those malicious communications to Katrina Sale that I was blamed for.

So far under the terms of my Bail conditions attached (Rebail to Police Station 19102022 (1).pdf) on specifically the Katrin Sale affair, I was prevented from having any contacts with her. With my exoneration this condition has automatically been lifted I have assumed.

Since 15 September 2021 I have been through hell being arrested several times as the prime suspect on this matter, and I am now looking for damages and compensation from whoever reported me to the Police as the suspect of the alleged stalking.

Please reply to this email for the matter is currently part of the Claim that I have made against the Conservative Prime Minister under E35YM660 of the Central London County Court and judgment is expected at any time from the Circuit Judge, as linked here: CLAIM E35YM660: damages and compensation from the United Kingdom Treasury (knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com) <https://www.knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com/post/claim-e35ym660-damages-and-compensation-from-the-united-kingdom-treasury>

Bail legislation is contained within the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984, as amended in 2017 & 2022.

If released on bail the following is applicable: -

- You must surrender to custody at the date and time as specified above
- You will be subject of an Applicable Bail Period (ABP). The ABP covers a period that you can be bailed within by the Custody Officer before it is reviewed to ensure the investigation is being dealt with diligently and expeditiously and to ensure that bail is still necessary and proportionate.
- If initially you were released on bail before 28/10/2022 the ABP was authorised by a Police Inspector for 28 days. The ABP can be reviewed, and an extension to 3 calendar months may be authorised on or before 28 days, by a Police Superintendent. Further extensions can be authorised at 3 calendar months intervals thereafter.
- If initially you were released on bail after 28/10/2022 the ABP was authorised by the Custody Officer for 3 calendar months. The ABP can be reviewed, and an extension for another 3 calendar months may be authorised, on or before 3 calendar months, by a Police Inspector. Further extensions can be authorised at 3 calendar months intervals thereafter.
- If your case is being investigated by the Serious Fraud Office, or the Financial Conduct Authority, or HM Revenue and Customs, or the National Crime Agency, the initial ABP for these cases is six months authorised by the Custody Officer. However, the police do not authorise extensions for these cases. This must be done by a designated officer for those agencies.
- If your case has been immediately referred to the Crown Prosecution Service the ABP will not start unless they require the investigators to carry out further work.
- You or your legal representative will be informed of the intention to apply for an extension to the ABP either in person if at the police station or by your preferred means of contact. You will be asked if you want to make any representations either immediately if in person by return of post / email etc.
- Early reviews will be conducted by relevant decision makers and later ones will be conducted by the Courts.
- The ABP will be suspended for the time that the case is sent back to the Crown Prosecution Service.
- You will be informed of the decision and the relevant time and date of the end of your ABP.
- You will also be informed of the actual date and time you are due to answer bail. This may be the same or a different time to the end of an ABP.
- The consequence of all of the above is that your bail date can be subject to several amendments. However a reasonable attempt will always be made to notify you of any changes, in writing to the address that you have provided to the police (or preferred method of contact), and/or via your legal representative if you have one.

It is important that you notify the OIC of any change to your address, your legal representative, or other point of contact, and that you provide us with any current phone numbers and email contact details. By doing so, we may be able to prevent you having to attend needlessly at a custody suite if we know (especially at short notice) that you have a new, later bail date or other information change (such as 'No Further Action').

Police Advisory Notice to Suspects

If you are involved in criminal proceedings, the following summary of potential offences is included for your information and awareness. The same offences will also be brought to the attention of any relevant victim or witness for their information. The list of offences is NOT exhaustive.

The purpose of this is to make it clear to all involved parties that any unlawful, unnecessary or inappropriate contact between the suspect in a case (either directly or through a third party), and the victim or witness, may constitute a criminal offence.

Any unlawful, unnecessary or inappropriate contact reported to the police, including any perception that this is the case, may result in arrests and prosecution of parties for any of the following offences

Intimidation of witnesses, jurors & others

Under S.51 of the Criminal Justice & Public Order Act 1994 it is an offence to intimidate or threaten by any means any person involved in the investigation of an offence relating to criminal matters.

In summary proceedings A fine and/or maximum six months imprisonment

On indictment: A fine and/or maximum five years imprisonment

'Harassment'

Under S.2 of the Protection from Harassment Act 1997, it is an offence for a person to pursue a course of conduct which amounts to harassment of another, and which he/she knows or ought to know amounts to harassment of the other, or to persuade any person not to do something that they are entitled or required to do, or to do something that they are not under any obligation to do.

In summary proceedings A fine and/or maximum six months imprisonment

On indictment: A fine and/or maximum two years imprisonment

Please note that other, more serious, offences are also provided for under the Protection from Harassment Act 1997

Perverting the Course of Justice

Under Common Law, it is an offence to conspire, act or embark upon a course of conduct which has a tendency to, and is intended to pervert, the course of public justice.

Some of the ways where conduct is capable of amounting to this offence is by making false allegations, perjury, concealing offences, obstructing the police, assisting others to evade arrest, failing to prosecute, interfering with witnesses/evidence/jurors, and publication of matters calculated to prejudice a fair trial.

Postal Charging

This leaflet explains Postal Charging and answers some questions you may have.

What is Postal Charging ?

This is a method of bringing an offender before a court for prosecution.

It means that you could be charged and required to attend court by post without returning to a police station.

Can I be charged by post ?

If you have been in police custody and you are granted unconditional police bail to return to a police station at a later date you may be charged by means of a 'postal charge' if a decision is made to charge you.

How does it work ?

If a decision is made to charge you at least 14 days before you are due to answer your bail you may receive a 'charge' and a 'requisition' to attend court through the post.

Will I still be on Police bail ?

Once a postal charge and requisition has been issued you will no longer be on police bail for that offence.

What do I do if I receive a Postal Charge ?

You will receive a charge/requisition form (MG4D). This will state the offence(s) with which you are charged. This will require you to attend court at a specified date and time.

If you fail to attend court when required a warrant will be issued for your arrest.

If this happens you may be held in custody until the next available court.

If you do not receive a postal charge or a bail cancellation notice you must answer your police bail at the date and time shown on your bail form.

Conservationist take the United Kingdom to Court for illegally squandering fish stocks

in TCLP-UK proceedings

<https://www.theconservativelibertariansociety.com/forum/tclp-uk-proceedings/conservationist-take-the-united-kingdom-to-court-for-illegally-squandering-fish-stocks>

TCLP-UK believes that the marine environment is a treasure and not to be regarded as a economic asset, so that fish stocks need to be conserved for a healthy future for the ecosystem, as well as a source of protein for future generations of the people of the United Kingdom.

We hope that the Court will rule in favour of the Conservationists challenging the Government's wanton disregard of scientific advice on the matter.

Strikes by junior doctors in the United Kingdom is a poorly judged phenomenon argues TCLP-UK in TCLP-UK proceedings

<https://www.theconservativelibertariansociety.com/forum/tclp-uk-proceedings/strikes-by-junior-doctors-in-the-united-kingdom-is-a-poorly-judged-phenomenon-argues-tclp-uk>

TCLP-UK agrees with the Health Secretary that strikes must be called off before meaningful talks can take place between the government and the British Medical Association. The government cannot negotiate with a gun pointed at not only its head but that which has widespread repercussions on patient care in the National Health Service.

The art of negotiations is gentle persuasion, and if the workers do not adhere to this peaceful means of persuasion, let them strike, bring more overseas doctors to replace them in the National Health Service for no one is indispensable. This the strikers should realise

Bail legislation is contained within the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984, as amended in 2017 & 2022.

If released on bail the following is applicable:-

- . You must surrender to custody at the date and time as specified above
- . You will be subject to an Applicable Bail Period (ABP). The ABP covers a period that you can be bailed within by the Custody Officer before it is reviewed to ensure the investigation is being dealt with diligently and expeditiously and to ensure that bail is still necessary and proportionate.
- . If initially you were released on bail before 28/10/2022 the ABP was authorised by a Police Inspector for 28 days. The ABP can be reviewed, and an extension for another three calendar months may be authorised on or before 28 days, by a Police Superintendent. Further extensions can be authorised at 3 calendar month intervals thereafter.
- . If initially you were released on bail after 28/10/2022 the ABP was authorised by the Custody Officer for 3 calendar months. The ABP can be reviewed, and an extension for another 3 calendar months may be authorised, on or before 3 calendar months, by a Police Inspector. Further extensions can be authorised at 3 calendar month intervals thereafter.
- . If your case is being investigated by the Serious Fraud Office, or the Financial Conduct Authority, or HM Revenue and Customs, or National Crime Agency, the initial ABP for these cases is six months authorised by the Custody Officer. However, the police do not authorise extensions for these cases. This must be done by a designated officer for those agencies.
- . If your case has been immediately referred to the Crown Prosecution Service the ABP will not start unless they require the investigators to carry out further work.
- . You or your legal representative will be informed of intention to apply for an extension to the ABP either in person if at the police station or by your preferred means of contact. You will be asked if you want to make any representations either immediately if in person by return of post/email etc.
- . Early reviews will be conducted by relevant decision makers and later ones will be conducted by the Courts.
- . The ABP will be suspended for the time that the case is sent back to the Crown Prosecution Service.

. You will be informed of the decision and the relevant time and date of the end of your ABP.

. You will also be informed of the actual date and time you are due to answer bail. This may be the same or a different time to the end of an ABP.

. The consequence of all the above is that your bail date can be subject to several amendments. However a reasonable attempt will always be made to notify you of any changes, in writing to the address that you have provided to the police (or the preferred method of contact), and/or via your legal representative if you have one.

It is important that you notify OIC of any change of your address, your legal representative, or other point of contact, and that you provide us with any current phone numbers and email contact details. By doing so, we may be able to prevent you having to attend needlessly at a custody suite if we know (especially at short notice) that you have a new, later bail date or other information change (such as 'No Further Action'.

Police Advisory Notice to Suspects

If you are involved in criminal proceedings, the following summary of potential offences is included for your information and awareness. The same offences will also be brought to the attention of any relevant victim or witness for their information. The list of offences is NOT exhaustive.

The purpose of this is to make clear to all involved parties that any unlawful, unnecessary or inappropriate contact between the suspect in a case (either directly or through a third party), and the victim or witness may constitute a criminal offence.

Any unlawful, unnecessary or inappropriate contact reported to the police, including any perception that this is the case, may result in arrests and prosecution of parties for any of the following offences

Intimidation of witnesses, jurors & others

Under S.51 of the Criminal Justice & Public Order Act 1994 it is an offence to intimidate or threaten by any means any person involved in the investigation of an offence relating to criminal matters.

In summary proceedings A fine and/or maximum six months imprisonment

On indictment A fine and/or maximum five years imprisonment

'Harassment'

Under S.2 of the Protection from Harassment Act 1997, it is an offence for a person to pursue a course of conduct which amounts to harassment of another, and which he/she knows or ought to know amounts to harassment of the other, or to persuade any person not to do something that they are entitled or required to do, or to do something that they are not under any obligation to do.

In summary proceedings A fine and/or maximum six months imprisonment

On indictment: A fine and/or maximum two years imprisonment

Please note that other, more serious, offences are also provided for under the Protection from Harassment Act 1997

Perverting the Course of Justice

Under Common Law, it is an offence to conspire, act or embark upon a course of conduct which has a tendency to, and is intended to pervert, the course of public justice.

Some of the ways where conduct is capable of amounting to this offence is by making false allegations, perjury, concealing offences, obstructing the police, assisting others to evade arrest, failing to prosecute, interfering with witnesses/evidence/jurors, and publication of matters calculate to prejudice a fair trial.

On indictment: Maximum LIFE imprisonment

Postal Charging

This leaflet explains Postal Charging and answers some questions you may have.

What is Postal Charging?

This is a method of bringing an offender before a court for prosecution.

It means that you could be charged and required to attend court by post without returning to a police station.

Can I be charged by post?

If you have been in police custody and you are granted unconditional police bail to return to a police station at a later date you may be charged by means of a 'postal charge' if a decision is made to charge you.

How does it work?

If a decision is made to charge you at least 14 days before you are due to answer your bail you may receive a 'charge' and a 'requisition' to attend court through the post.

Will I still be on Police bail?

Once a postal charge and requisition has been issued you will no longer be on police bail for that offence.

What do I do if I receive a Postal Charge?

You will receive a charge/requisition form (MG4D). This will state the offence(s) with which you are charged. This will require you to attend court at a specified date and time.

If you fail to attend court when required a warrant will be issued for your arrest. If this happens, If this happens you may be held in custody until the next available court

If you do not receive a postal charge or a bail cancellation notice you must answer your police bail at the date and time shown on your bail form.

Once a postal charge and requisition has been issued you will no longer be on police bail for that offence.

What do I do if I receive a Postal Charge?

You will receive a charge/requisition form (MG4D). This will state the offence(s) with which you are charged. This will require you to attend court at a specified date and time.

If you fail to attend court when required a warrant will be issued for your arrest. If this happens, If this happens you may be held in custody until the next available court

If you do not receive a postal charge or a bail cancellation notice you must answer your police bail at the date and time shown on your bail form.

Dear Sirs

I have been trying to update my Accounts on receipt of your letter yesterday (21st December 2023) in the post typed out as attached: HMRC Document received in the post 21 Dec2023.docx.and had a query HMRC in relation to your communication to me attached: FHMRC RE: HMRC online support request UQFE-2668-BOQK)4Dec2023.docx to which no further emails had come from you

I went to Resume the account returns to bring it all up-to-date ten minutes ago but was unable to enter the figures due to a technical problem on your website.

Hence until HMRC rectifies this problem, I as Director of the Conservative Libertarian Publications Limited will not be able to stick to the deadline set for me in your letter referred to above.

 Hi,

There will be some of you who signed up for The 77 Secrets who may also be interested in the business opportunities we have to offer. So, here's a quick summary because this really is a very exciting time to consider becoming involved with Vitali-Chi Ltd.

We have not only survived those tricky first five years, we have thrived. We now have a growing and unsullied reputation and our list of testimonials runs into the hundreds.

We have opportunities for therapists (or those with a Reiki or similar qualification) to become Qualified Vitali-Chi Practitioners, effectively treating people for a variety of ailments and emotional issues.

You may also wish to consider becoming a Vitali-Chi Relax Leader, where you will lead groups of people on healing and guided visualizations, all the while being helped by the Vitali-Chi equipment and the pioneering groundwork that we have already completed. You also don't need any prior qualifications, just a desire to succeed and help others.

Also, in the coming months, we will be launching Vitali-Chi Salon, where salon clients will be able to have a Vitali-Chi treatment, whilst also being pampered with our unique range of cosmetics and therapeutic products. We are also looking for people to help launch that concept. Like I said, there never has been a better time to become involved and we'd love to have you on board.

If you would like any more information on any of these opportunities, just reply to this email and it will find me. I am here to help, so please let me know if you have any questions.

Hope to hear from you soon.

In the meantime,

All the very best,

Allen Jesson

Hi, If you are referring to travel vaccinations unfortunately we do not do this at the Surgery you would need to attend a travel clinic. Updat and Comments:

So, I had sent email to HMRC and Olives Solicitors at info@olivessolicitors.com and checked the Vaccination status at Long Catlis Road Surgery for our holiday trip to India, but there were no responses. I had updated this book 'THE RIGHT COURSE OF ACTIONS WITH all the latest developments and replaced the existing version of the Book in The Allurement of Reality Shop up to the 10.59 am (UK-Time) 22 December 2023 point (73 pages long) that the State Authorities were well aware of but Kent Police is not budging on the submission that the nobody@dizum.com email address that it entered into the Bail document be replaced as I had asked for, and the North Kent Magistrates Court is not passing Judgment on the application made 'Awaiting the Magistrates Judgment' on this Friday the 22 of December 2023 when official business break up for the Christmas holidays.

Instead, at 11.46 am the Mobile Phone rang from a Spam Caller dialling from 0117 325 9083.

This was followed by the following terroristic email from LinkedIn:

So the terrorism has not ended on me. It would therefore appear that the Bail date of 16 March 2024 remains in place.

I updated my DOSSIER FOR DEFENSIVE RESISTANCE TO STATE-ORGANISED PERSECUTION OF DR SHANTANU PANIGRAHI' but did not publish it so that it will now be remain for legal proceedings if required.
